

Item	Description	Image
Hand sanitiser	Alcohol based hand sanitiser to kills bacteria or germs on hands for infection control.
Gloves	Use medical grade gloves for infection control.
Suitable shoes	Shoes that can be locally bought, fit well and have features that can help protect feet and reduce the risk of falling.
Therapeutic footwear	Therapeutic footwear are shoes and insoles for people who can walk, but still need to protect their feet from pressure and rubbing.
Rigid removable boot	A removable product or boot with added features for protection and support. The aim is to reduce pressure on high risk areas of the feet while walking.
Offloading pad material	Can be either EVA or wool felt. The thickness may vary depending on what is available.
Scissors	Used to cut material and edges.
Tubular gauze	Designed to provide a protective layer in contact with the skin.

Tape	A tape with an adhesive layer that is not elastic.
Lipstick or marker	Used to mark an area on the persons foot and the offloading material.	